WOMEN IN VIDEO 2:

WOMB WITH A VIEW (1983, 40 min.) This amusing autobiographical video by San Diego artist Sherry Millner explores the personal and social contradiction of pregnancy, using a grab bag of inventive visual gimmicks and puns, one-liners and bit gags, with a diaristic and often philosophical narration.

NOT FOR ART'S SAKE (1984, 20 min.) The adult film industry as seen through the eyes of the women who are part of it. Includes interviews with star Kay Parker, actress Colleen Brennan, producer/director Suze Randall, make-up person Maria Haro, wardrobe person Debbie Shine and film critic (for Hustler magazine) Lonn Friend. A video by Catherine Doyle and Judea Herbstein.

TRICK OR DRINK (1984, 21 min.) A heartrending and sometimes humorous autobiographical video by New York performance artist Vanalyne Green, using the setting of a family television room to explore addiction to alcohol, food, youthful bodies, and love.

HOW TO TAP DANCE THE NEWS (1984, 9 minutes) Sondra Lowell, official news tap-dancer of KABC's Ken and Bob Show, reveals the secrets of her profession.

THURSDAY - SUNDAY, JUNE 21 - 24 and June 28 - July 1

GAY FREEDOM CELEBRATION SPECIAL:

BATHHOUSE BENEDICTION (1984, 34 min.) Jon Sharp stars as an aging Adonis soliloquizing against yet another rude awakening in a gay bathhouse. A play by James Carroll Pickett, directed by Michael Kearns, taped by EZTV at the Actors Playhouse, edited by James Williams.

TO TENNESSEE WILLIAMS WITH LOVE FROM HIS FRIENDS (1984, 17 min.) A portrait of the late author consisting of interviews with those who knew him. A video by David Vanderbilt.

NEW VIDEOS BY JAMIE WALTERS (1984, 21 min.) From Washington, D.C. videomaker Jamie Walters, best known for his hilarious Louise Nevelson Takes A Bath, come several new short works, including: Under Suspicion, Thru the CRT, Fresh Out of Ideas, Baja Fantasy, and Gloria's Point of View, all productions of Video Free Earth.

SHE WROTE THE BOOK (1984, 10 min.) Scheming faculty members vie to win the favor of a voluptuous visiting authoress in this spin-off from the makers of Faculty Wives. Guest star: Jamie Walters. A video by Earl Miller, Pat Evans, and Jack Friend.
