Dear John:

Thank you for organizing such a successful screening of the videos! Seeing the ad for Private Pleasures alongside Meryl Streep's latest film put a new and desirable perspective on sexual entertainment videos! We thought the reviews were in keeping with that attitude by their straightforward and fair coverage.

It was such a pleasure to work with you, John. We are so used to having to attend to every last detail, but you just took the ball and ran with it. We appreciate your organization and your promptness, as well as your willingness to help us out on such short notice with the dubs we needed.

Haven't heard from Hustler yet, but will certainly let you know if anything comes of that. Also, we are doing a sex education/safe sex video this winter which we expect to be available this spring. It will be about lesbian sexuality and will run between 30-60 minutes. Keep us in mind if EZTV makes any plans to do a safe sex event. We are also doing another 30 minute s/m video to sell with Shadows, which we intend to re-record with new voice and dialogue to make Shadows even more documentary. We want to include special effects in this next video project, so we will be contacting you to see if you have any technical leads we can experiment with.

Thanks again for all your support, John.

Sincerely,

Debi & Nan
