

Clear day
clear conscience
clear sailing ahead
don't go back to bed
get out there and do it follow through, it's worth the time
it takes to find
new avenues to tread
don't be led
by false messiahs
true pariahs
the great unfed
beware laconic treasures
unfilled leisures
end up dead
a clear enemy
gives one and all
a reason to fight
against the night
not to go gently into Reagan can be stopped.
