

Approaching Omega,
The point of no return.
Little children reach their hands out
And find it within reach,
The preparation has been laid,
The final acts of mankind played,
The reason for our Universal consciousness
Approaches.

Omega comes:
The road ahead is clear,
The transformation near -
The end point
From which there is no need of turning back approaches.

Omega now,
The reason for our being,
The mystery we've been seeing,
Now clear.

Omega here.
No further need of wanting,
No further doubt or fear,
The way ahead is clear.

Omega now is here.
Omega you, Omega me -
The barriers dissolve,
The differences resolve,
Omega now, this year!
What is this end point so desired,
So feared, misunderstood?
We did but what we could to make it first appear -
A glimmering of hope
So far away,
Yet clear.

It called us on
And told us what to leave behind
And what to hold as dear.
Omega calling us to base -
Make haste, the end is near.
The end is the beginning of Forever - never fear.
There is no need to ask the seer.
The time has come!
Take up all that you have
And leave it well behind -
The Truth is what you find.
Omega now is here!
No need to father future generations to travel into space.
Space is here and now,
Infinity is here and now,
Omega here and now.
No need to formulate doctrine -
Law and order infinite is here!
Freedom and chaos infinite here!

Omega point -
 The point of no return,
 The end of man's laws,
 The end of man.
 The "end", as in "reason for" -
 Not "finality."
 Finally the end -
 The reason for
 It all.
 Omega.

Lift your voices high,
 Point upward to the sky,
 The End is near
 Immortality assured,
 Fear and strife no more endured,
 Crystal clear the end is here.
 Omega.

How so? What end is here?
 What reason for no fear?
 What cause this wordless cheer?
 Immortality you say?
 Immortality today?
 How so, I do not understand?
 Would you have me leave this land?
 These friends?
 This wine?
 This beer?
 What intoxicated madness
 makes you say
 That all has come to naught?
 Is this really what we sought?
 To be free of all we see and hear?
 Omega?

The time has come to answer clear,
 To put aside all thoughts, all fear:
 Omega point is what we know,
 What we feel,
 And what we show,
 When all is shown and known.
 No revelations more,
 We've gone out the open door.
 No more mysteries appear -
 This time I say is here!
 Omega.

Drink of air
 and eat of time,
 Breath in Truth,
 Exhale divine.
 Flesh and blood we are, that's true,
 But what more is there to do
 Than celebrate what is, in rhyme?
 Omega point is here.

Your reasoning escapes me still -
 What should I do and why?
 Dance this dance
 and sing this song,
 See these visions,
 You won't be wrong.
 The answer's in the sky -
 I wouldn't lie.
 But come, draw near:
 The answer is for all,
 Not just for you or me -
 That could never set us free.
 The truth is now for all to hear
 All to sing
 and all to share -
 Omega point is here.

Please make your message clear -
 The Answer's in the sky?
 But why?
 And how?
 Will I not die?
 My life is now and here.
 Then you have learned your lesson well.
 Take heart. Be of good cheer.
 Your time is now and here.
 What greater answer could you want?
 Omega.

Tautology, endless tautology
 Reasons for living
 Reasons for being
 Endlessly made clear
 Omega point is here
 Omega point is here!
 Now!
 The end of reason,
 The reason for the end.
 Omega.
 Omega.
 Q.E.D.

(The answer's in the sky, you say?
 The answer's in my heart.
 And you thought I wasn't so smart.
 Omega's drawing near?
 No. Omega's already here,
 and always was.
 So there!
 Omega.)

Wear yourself out playing the Omega game,
 Then refresh yourself
 and start again once more.
 Repeat it in a million different ways,
 Then come to rest, then start again once more - Endlessly.
 Omega.
